

Top Questions Asked at...

Gaudenzia Washington House (GWH)

1. Does GWH help with finding a home plan?

No. You are to work with your assigned parole agent for assistance.

2. May I work an overnight shift?

You must work with your assigned parole agent to get approval for this work shift and there can be no history of curfew violations or misconducts.

3. May I get paid in cash (without a pay stub)?

This type of payment for performance of a job must be approved by your parole agent.

4. Do I have to do community service?

Yes. Each reentrant must perform 10 hours of community service each month.

5. Do I have to pay rent?

Yes. Each reentrant must pay 20% of each pay.

6. Do I have to save money?

Yes. Each reentrant is to save 40% of each pay.

7. Does GWH help with transportation for job searches and appointments?

No. All costs associated with job searches and appointments must be paid by each reentrant.

8. Do I have to pay parole supervision fees?

Yes. The amount of your supervision fees is determined by your assigned parole agent.

9. What meetings/sessions am I required to attend?

Non-working reentrants must attend all morning group/seminars and sessions. All appointment must be reported to counselor for verification. Working reentrants must attend two in-house sessions a week during the evenings. Reentrants are expected to attend 12 step meetings with their peers and secure a sponsor within 30 days.